

REPUBLICANS ARE PREPARED FOR THE FRAY

Strong Attack Planned Upon the Underwood-Simmons Tariff Bill When It Appears in Senate.

LA FOLLETTE WILL LEAD OPPOSITION

Wisconsin Senator Promises
Long and Stubborn Fight
Upon the Wool and Cotton Schedules.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Republican members of the senate have been quietly preparing for a strong attack that is to be made on the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill when it gets back into the senate late this week. While a programme of tariff policy has not been laid out by the Republicans, leading representatives of the party in the senate have prepared substitutes and amendments directed at many of the important sections of the Democratic bill.

Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, who will bring the bill in from the committee with the seal of Democratic caucus approval upon it, estimates that five weeks will be enough to wind up general debate and discussion of the measure and to secure a vote on its final passage.

Harmony Lacking.

The Democrats are not yet in complete harmony over the measure because of the insistence of some western and southern senators that the free sugar and free wool plans of the administration be modified. An attempt is to be made late tomorrow to put a binding rule through the caucus, pledging every Democrat to vote down

CONSPIRE AGAINST DOMESTIC HARMONY.

The ills of women seem to conspire against domestic harmony. No husband can understand why a woman should be continually ailing, fretful, nervous and despondent, and he gets out of all patience with her. In nine cases out of ten some organic derangement is the cause of this condition and is easily overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills which has cured more severe cases of this kind than any other remedy we know.

amendments in the senate and to support the bill in its entirety. Pro-nounced opposition to this plan cropped up when a member moved it. Two views of the Republican attitude are shown in the work that has been done by Senator Smoot of Utah and Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, in preparation for the approaching fight in the senate. Senator Smoot has prepared amendments to scores of the Democratic items, and will offer a complete substitute for the Democratic wool tariff plan. His proposal will be for a substantial reduction in raw wool and on manufactured goods, but on such a basis that a reasonable protection will be retained.

La Follette to Fight.

Senator La Follette has been at work for weeks with the aid of experts preparing substitute schedules for many sections of the Underwood-Simmons bill. He also expects to attack the woolen and cotton schedule, and is prepared to make a long and stubborn fight in the effort to rally Republicans, Progressives and some Democrats to the support of a woolen tariff that will be much below the present rates, but will preserve some protection. It is expected, however, that the La Follette proposal will suggest much lower rates than those to be made by Senator Smoot.

Lobby investigations, which grew out of the tariff revision bill, promise to engross the attention of congress again this week. The senate's investigation committee will begin tomorrow a series of probes that is expected to keep it busy for two weeks or more.

WAR TO THE KNIFE IN BALKAN COUNTRY

statement, however, describing the military position after five days' fighting, makes the admission that the Serbian army has not been so uniformly successful as was previously reported.

Describing the five days' operations between Maradur and Kriovak, it says that after holding a greatly superior force in check, the Serbians were obliged to retire. Thus Kriovak fell into the hands of the Bulgarians. It contends, however, that this Bulgarian success was insignificant compared with the Serbian successes against the Bulgarian right wing. Another semi-official communication says last week's battles were the longest, the bloodiest and the hardest fought of all the battles in the Balkan war. The Bulgarians lost 5,000 killed and wounded, the Bulgarians, 20,000. The Bulgarian losses were increased by the bad organization of their army and lack of communication and transport. Their wounded were left on the battlefield; the dead were unburied.

It is reported that the Greeks from Doiran are advancing towards Kriovak, where a desperate battle has been raging for three days.

Heart-breaking Losses.

LONDON, July 6.—The Belgrade correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says the losses of both Serbians and Bulgarians are heart-breaking. There is reason to believe the Bulgarians suffered most, because throughout they clubbed themselves upon the Serbian positions in close formation with bayonet, regardless of the sacrifices such primitive methods entailed.

"Thus," adds the correspondent, "throughout the sixty miles front there has been for a whole week a series of desperate night attacks, with the bayonet resulting in great slaughter." The correspondent asserts that Istip has been burned but not occupied by either side, owing to its being surrounded by marshes.

Bargain With Rumania.

LONDON, July 6.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Mail learns that Austria has arranged a bargain between Bulgaria and Rumania, whereby Bulgaria will get Saloniki in return for territorial concessions in Rumania. An Odessa dispatch to the Mail says: "As a precautionary measure the garrisons in southern and southwestern Russia are being mobilized with a view to eventualities arising out of the Balkan war."

New Balkan Alliance.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 6.—The "Rech" asserts that four parties are passing between Greece, Serbia, Montenegro and Rumania, with the object of forming a new quadruple alliance. Rumors are persistent that Turkey threatens to evacuate Bulgaria, Rostovo and the coast of Marmora.

Greek Victories.

ATHENS, July 6.—The Bulgarian minister has left Saloniki. The Greeks have captured the Dolina. The right wing has taken possession of Orlikovo, on the river Strymon. Advances from headquarters say that news is continually arriving of fresh victories.

Ministers Recalled.

SOFIA, July 6.—The Bulgarian ministers at Belgrade and Cetinje have been recalled and the Bulgarian interests have been convoked for Tuesday.

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES— RESINOL CURED

Atlanta, Ga., April 24, 1913.—"When I received the samples of Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment my face was covered with pimples which defied other creams, soaps and cosmetics. They were a source of constant humiliation to me, coming in contact with many strangers as I do, as a business woman."

"By the time I had finished a cake of Resinol Soap and half a jar of Resinol Ointment my skin was soft as velvet, and as smooth. My friends were stunned, and everyone asked me what I had done. When I told them, I think they hardly believed it, for the transformation was simply wonderful. Since then I have been using Resinol Soap and shall never be without it again, for I have learned the delights of a clear, soft, beautiful complexion that may be attained by its constant use." WOULD SAVE BY TRANSFUSING BLOOD ager P. D. Kline said today that the injured trainman had not uttered a word for the past twelve hours.

When first taken to the hospital, Sherman was delirious and made rambling statements regarding the accident. Later he became comatose and during the brief periods that he has rallied from that condition he seemed unable to speak. Manager Kline visited him yesterday, but, realizing the man's condition, attempted no questions regarding the cause of the accident. The official investigation today that the company had established the identity of witnesses who would be able to relate what transpired with regard to Motorman Sherman a few minutes before the cars met. Conductor Nels Boyer of the upbound train will be held equally responsible with Motorman Sherman if the cause of the wreck is traced to any error on the part of the latter, according to the veiled suggestions of Manager Kline.

Regarding a coroner's inquest for the purpose of making an official inquiry into the death of Peter Minnoch, who succumbed to his injuries yesterday morning, Manager Kline said that he had learned of no such action, if such was contemplated. As to the calling in of disinterested citizens to consider the evidence gathered by the company's officials on Saturday, Mr. Kline said that such a decision would be reached by those higher than himself in the affairs of the corporation.

According to the statements of Robert Minnoch, a brother of the man who died yesterday, there is a possibility that the relatives will call upon County Attorney David Jensen for an official investigation into the cause of the accident by means of a coroner's inquest. If the relatives consider such action advisable, they will call upon Attorney Jensen tomorrow. The county official was out of the city today and could not be interviewed regarding his decision in case that an inquest is demanded, but according to his previous assertion on the point, he would not hesitate to authorize an official inquiry. Any investigation of this character, according to the attorney, would involve the possibility of criminal neglect on the part of the operating company.

Victor A. Friese, residing at 243 Thirty-first street, is believed to be one of the witnesses who could furnish a coroner's jury with important evidence. Although admitting that he was riding on the front platform of the canyon-bound car and had talked with Motorman Sherman a few minutes before the accident, Friese refuses to make a statement.

"I have my idea how it happened and I am going to keep it. I am not going to get Sherman or myself in hot water by making any statement for publication," was Friese's answer to questions put by a Tribune representative. The man admitted that he had worked with the man Sherman a few years ago and the records of the Ogden Rapid Transit company show that he was at one time employed as a street car conductor.

You Get Food of Superb Quality at the "Royal"

Come, you lovers of good eatables!
Here is a food message for you. It's one you should respond to. Tell your friends about it.

The Royal Cafeteria is a vastly different food parlor. Its creed is to serve and serve well. It scours the market for the most appetizing foodstuffs, and pays a premium to get the best. Its chef is not a Frenchman, but he knows a thing or two about cooking. The food he prepares has all its rich, natural flavor—as it should have. It's a treat to have a meal prepared by this man. Many of Salt Lake's representative business and professional men and women think so much of his cooking they eat at the "Royal" regularly. Service here is without a parallel. The dining parlor is a model of cleanliness. A battery of electric fans keep the air fresh and cool.

CORNISH, N. H., July 6.—President Wilson, his family and Francis Bowes Sayre, Miss Jessie Wilson's fiancée, motored to Windsor, Vt., today to attend the service at the Congregational church there. The nearest Presbyterian church is forty miles from here.

The day was exceedingly warm and the roads, especially the "Wilson road," now under consideration, were several inches deep with dust, and the president decided that he would forego an automobile drive in the afternoon.

The president told the newspaper men today that he intended to take a complete rest while here, and therefore did not intend to hold his daily interview.

Although the president has found that he will be forced to do without many conveniences, he expressed himself as satisfied with his summer home, and said he came here for rest, not luxury.

Marie Dressler, the actress, whose summer home, Windsor farm, overlooks Har-laken, held open house today for the newspaper men and secret service men who are here with the president. The hotel in Cornish has but one bathroom, only Miss Dressler has told the men who follow the president that they are welcome to her large open-air swimming pool. She also invited them to call on her well-stocked ice chest for anything which might quench their thirst but which the laws of New Hampshire and Vermont forbid to be sold.

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD BOY CONFESSES MURDER

"Aberdeen"
Saves $40,000

We estimate that "Aberdeen" saved Salt Lake's fuel consumers over $40,000 last year.

And $40,000 is a conservative estimate.

In all probability, this figure was greatly exceeded.

The saving was made through "Aberdeen" being superior in actual fuel properties.

By test, we have proved that it is far ahead of all other western coals.

If you failed to share in this $40,000, we say get in on the 1913 saving.
